If either party is in the military, special rules may apply and it is recommended you seek the advice of an attorney.

Counsel Is Always Recommended For Legal Matters

The law allows any person to represent himself or herself in a legal action. However, filing papers with the court and representing yourself in the courtroom can involve complicated legal issues. This packet does not address all the legal issues involved in bringing your matter before the court. This packet is created to help you access the legal system without the assistance of an attorney.

When representing yourself, you are responsible for understanding the law that governs your case and for filing the proper legal documents. The laws and rules are set out in the Nevada Revised Statutes, The Rules of Civil Procedure, and the local rules governing the jurisdiction in which you are filing your documents.

When you sign these documents and present them for filing with the court, it is assumed by the court that you have carefully read the documents, that you understand all the terms in the documents, that you agree with all the provisions in the documents, and that you are aware of all the consequences those provisions may produce.

Before filling in any portion of the following documents, read all the materials included in this packet including the definitions of terms.

THIS INFORMATION IS PROVIDED AS A COURTESY ONLY. THE COURT, SELF-HELP CENTER, NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION, OR LAW LIBRARY THAT MAY PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ERRORS CONTAINED HEREIN OR FOR DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE FURNISHING OF THIS MATERIAL.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING OUT FORMS

CAREFULLY READ THROUGH ALL OF THE INSTRUCTIONS
BEFORE STARTING TO FILL OUT ANY OF THE FORMS

Use black ink only to fill out the forms and neatly print the information requested.

*Do not use Wite-Out or other correction fluid/tape on the forms.
They will not be accepted by the Court if correction fluid/tape is used.*

Included in this packet are the following forms:

- 1. A Civil Cover Sheet
- 2. A Family Court Information Sheet
- 3. A Personal Case Information Form
- 4. A Financial Disclosure Form
- 5. A Petition To Establish Custody and Visitation
- 6. Two Summons Forms

IMPORTANT:

This packet does not contain all of the documents you may need for your case. The forms in this packet only “initiate” the action. If the other party files an Answer and Counterclaim, you will need the A1 Reply to Counterclaim packet. If the other party does not file an Answer at all within 20-days after service, you will need the P5 Default Documents to Establish Custody and Visitation packet to finish your case.

The penalty for making a false statement in a declaration that is made under penalty of perjury is a minimum of 1 year and a maximum of 4 years in prison, with the possibility of an additional fine of $5000 or more if authorized or required by statute. See N.R.S. §199.145

STEP 1

Filling Out the Civil Cover Sheet

Fill in the top portion of the cover sheet with the name, address and telephone number of both parties.

Check the box labeled “Support/Custody/Visitation – CU.”

Fill in the date at the bottom of the sheet and print and sign your name on the line indicated.

STEP 2

Filling Out the Family Court Information Sheet

Print your name on the line for Petitioner and the other party’s name on the line for Respondent.

Fill in your name and the Respondent’s name and Social Security Numbers. If you or the Respondent do not have a Social Security number, print “do not have one” on the line for the number.

Complete the form, filling in all the information you can on yourself, the Respondent and the children. If any children listed do not have Social Security numbers, print “do not have one” on the line for the number.

STEP 3

Filling Out The Personal Case Information Form

Fill in your name, address and telephone number in the upper left hand corner.

Print your name on the line for Petitioner and the other party’s name on the line for Respondent. Leave the Case No. blank and Dept. No. blank. When you file the documents with the filing clerk, a case number and a department number will be assigned.

Complete all information as required on page 1. Follow the directions carefully and fill in the necessary information on dependants and children being sure to include any information on where the child or children have lived for the past five (5) years. This information informs the Court of its jurisdiction to enter orders regarding child custody and visitation.

Pay special attention to the information required regarding any other cases that may have been filed regarding the parties or the children. The information required includes cases such as Temporary Protection Orders, Social Services cases, child support cases or guardianships.

Sign and date the document.

STEP 4

Filling Out The Financial Disclosure Form

Fill in your name, address and telephone number in the upper left hand corner.

Print your name on the line for Petitioner and the other party's name on the line for Respondent. Leave the Case No. blank and Dept. No. blank. When you file the documents with the filing clerk, a case number and a department number will be assigned.

Review the document carefully prior to attempting to answer the questions. This form focuses on your employment, income and expenses as they are at this moment in time. This is a snapshot of your financial status as you fill out this form, not your financial status as it was in the past or what it will be in the future.

The income and expenses are based on your monthly income and expenses. Those items that you pay every few months should be averaged as to their monthly cost. For instance, if you pay your car insurance every six months, your monthly expense for the insurance would be 1/6th of your payment.

If you do not know the approximate value of such things as a vehicle or a house, state "unknown." Do not guess as to values of major property. It is important to remember that the value of such things as furniture and clothes is not the replacement value or the original cost. The value is what one would pay for such things in a second hand store or a thrift store.

STEP 5

Filling out the Petition to Establish Custody and Visitation

Fill in your name, address and telephone number in the upper left hand corner.

Print your name on the line for Petitioner and the other party's name on the line for Respondent. Leave the Case No. blank and Dept. No. blank. When you file the documents with the filing clerk, a case number and a department number will be assigned.

The directions for the Petition are printed on the form. Follow the directions carefully. The custody, visitation and support information must be complete.

Be sure you are familiar with the terms and the definitions regarding child custody and visitation. Also, be sure you know how the child support must be figured according to the Child Support Statutes. If a child support obligation has already been established through the District Attorney's Family Support Unit, make sure to include that information.

STEP 6

Filling Out The Two Summons Forms

The information filled out on both forms will be the same.

Print your name on the line for Petitioner and the other party's name on the line for Respondent. Leave the Case No. blank and Dept. No. blank. When you file the documents with the filing clerk, a case number and a department number will be assigned.

On the line provided in the middle of the page, fill in the object of this action – such as “Custody and Visitation.”

Print your name, address and telephone number in the space on the bottom left side of the Summons.

On the second page of the document, list any other documents to be served along with the Petition. Do not fill in any other lines/information at this time.

STEP 7

Copying and Filing The Documents

Make two copies of all documents except the Summons. Take the original documents and the copies to the filing clerk's office which is located on the first floor of the Courthouse at 75 Court Street, Reno, NV.

There will be a filing fee charged when the documents are filed. You may check with the filing clerk's office at 328-3110 to confirm the fee.

FILING FEE WAIVERS

If you cannot afford the filing fee, you may apply to have your filing fee waived. To apply, you must fill out and file the application found in the F6 or F6JP fee waiver packet.

The F6 and F6JP fee waiver packets may be obtained in the following locations:

- Family Court Self Help Center, 1 South Sierra Street, Reno, NV
- Filing Clerk's Office, 75 Court Street, Reno, NV
- www.washoecourts.com

The clerk will assign a case number and department number to your documents. The clerk will file stamp all the documents, keep the original of all the documents except the Summons, and return the copies to you.

The clerk will then “issue” the Summons by signing it and putting a raised seal on the original Summons. Both the original Summons and the copy of the Summons will be returned to you.

STEP 8

Serving the Documents

Staple the copy of the Summons to a copy of the Petition along with a copy of all other documents you have filed with the Court.

These documents must be served on the other party within ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY (120) days of the date the Summons was “issued” by the clerk or the Court may dismiss the action.

Someone other than you must make service on the other party.

Service may be made:

- 1) By the Civil Division of the Sheriff's Office in the county in which the Defendant resides or works.
- 2) By a responsible adult over the age of 18 years, such as a friend or relative.
- 3) By a private process server.

You cannot serve the documents on the Respondent yourself and you cannot serve the documents by mail.

The documents must be served on the other party directly and personally, or they may be left at the home of the party with an adult at that residence.

If you choose to have the Sheriff's office serve the documents, you must deliver the original Summons and the packet of documents to be served to the Washoe County Sheriff's Civil Division at 911 Parr Blvd., Reno, NV.

The Sheriff's office will charge a service fee. However, if the Judge signed an Order waiving your fees and costs, you may show a copy of the Order to the Sheriff's office and they will waive the service fee if the other party is to be served in Washoe County.

The Sheriff's office will serve the documents, complete the Declaration of Service and send the original Summons back to the Clerk for filing. You may choose to keep in contact with the Civil Division of the Sheriff's office and the Court's filing clerk to make sure the documents are served and the Declaration of Service is filed with the Court.

You may also have the documents served on the other party through a private, professional process server or service. Follow up with the process serve to ensure that the server fills out the Declaration of Service and files the original Summons with the court.

If you choose to have anyone other than the Sheriff's office or a professional process service serve the other party, the Declaration of Service on the second page of the original Summons must be filled out and signed by the person who served the documents.

After the Declaration of Service is completed, the original Summons must be filed with the filing clerk. It is a good idea to make a copy of the original Summons with the Declaration of Service completed and have it filed stamped when you file the original Summons with the clerk. The clerk will return the copy to you for your records.

The other party has twenty (20) days from the date of service (not counting the day of service) in which to answer, oppose or respond to the Petition.

After Service Is Completed

How your case will be handled after service of the Petition and Summons is completed on the Respondent will depend entirely on whether an Answer, Opposition or Response is filed by the Respondent.

It is important to take immediate action if the other party files and serves you any kind of documents. There are important time frames in which documents and pleadings must be filed. If those time frames are not met, you may be put at a great disadvantage.

REMINDER: These documents only initiate the case. They do not take you through the whole procedure.

SOME DEFINITIONS and EXPLANATIONS OF TERMS USED IN FAMILY CASES WITH CHILDREN

The following definitions and explanations are only to be used as general guidance. In no way are they intended to cover all the legal significance and importance of the terms. You are advised to seek a full explanation of the terms, definitions, and explanations, from a private attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Nevada.

Alimony or Spousal Support: Alimony, or Spousal Support is the amount paid to one spouse by the other for a period of time after the marriage is over, usually to assist the spouse in being able to maintain a lifestyle to which that spouse is accustomed, until that spouse can get back on firm financial footing. Spousal support may be for a limited amount of time, such as months or years, until remarriage, or may be permanent until remarriage. If the spouse that is receiving support remarries, unless otherwise agreed upon, and ordered by the court, the spousal support stops at the time of remarriage. There is no formula for spousal support and either party may receive spousal support. The factors governing spousal support are complicated and if you have any questions regarding spousal support, they should be discussed with a private attorney.

Answer to Complaint or Petition: When a defendant or respondent is “served” with a complaint or petition, a formal, written, “answer” must be filed with the court by the “defendant” or “respondent” within twenty (20) days of the date the Complaint was served, either agreeing with, or opposing, the requests of the plaintiff or petitioner. If the defendant or respondent does not file a written, formal, answer to the claims, the other party (the plaintiff or petitioner) may take a “default” and receive all that they request in the complaint or petition. Very often, when a person receives a copy of the “complaint” or “petition”, they wait for some kind of a notice of a hearing. No hearing is automatically scheduled. Unless the defendant or respondent actually, formally, answers the complaint or petition, in writing, and files it with the court, the court will, most likely, automatically grant the plaintiff or petitioner everything they request.

If the defendant or respondent wants something different than is stated in the Complaint, the defendant or respondent may file a “counterclaim” with the answer.

Child Custody: There are two kinds of custody, “legal” custody and “physical” custody. Physical custody has to do with the actual, physical interaction and contact between parent and child. Legal custody has to do with the rights and responsibilities to make decisions about the important aspects of the child’s life, such as the child’s education and the child’s health needs.

The following are not complete legal definitions, but only give you an idea of what terms are commonly used in documents and what they generally mean. For a more complete definition, please speak to an attorney, or clarify the terms with the mediator, if you are in mediation, or, clarify the terms at the time of any hearing or conference with the judge.

Primary Physical Custody: The child physically resides with, and spends the great majority of time with, one parent, designated as the primary physical custodian, and the other parent has visitation rights and privileges. For example: the non-custodial parent may have visitation at least every other weekend, one evening during the off week, alternate holidays and some block time for vacation periods. Non-custodial arrangements vary with each set of circumstances.

Joint Physical Custody: Each parent has significant periods of time with the child. It DOES NOT MEAN that each parent has an exact equal amount of time with the child. The significant time may be worked out over longer periods such as weekly, monthly, or even annually. This may also be designated as shared physical custody. Joint physical custody does not mean that there will be no child support obligation. Usually, there is still a child support obligation of some kind from one parent to the other, depending upon the financial position in which each is left following the divorce.

Sole Physical Custody: Sole physical custody is very seldom granted by the court. Usually, the term is used when one parent is completely out of the child's life, such as in prison, or in circumstances that contact with the non-custodial parent would expose the child to physical danger or abuse. Sole physical custody does not automatically mean that the non-custodial parent has no visitation rights. The court may grant one parent sole physical custody and grant the non-custodial parent specific visitation. The term sole physical custody is most often combined with sole legal custody which then grants one parent the complete control over making all the decisions for the child without any input by the non-custodial parent. However, sole physical custody may also be combined with joint legal custody. In that case, although one parent has the child solely in their physical custody, the important decisions for the child are made with input by the non-custodial parent.

Joint Legal Custody: Both parents equally share the right and responsibility to make decisions about the child's health, education and welfare. Should the parents not be able to agree on such decisions, the parents usually return to mediation to see if they can work out their differences and if they cannot work them out through mediation, the matter is presented to the Court for the final decision. Both parents have an equal right to access such things as the child's doctor's records and school records.

Sole Legal Custody: One parent, alone, has the right and responsibility to make all the decisions about the child's health, education and welfare, without any input from the non-custodial parent. Sole legal custody is only granted in extreme and unusual cases and circumstances.

Child Support:

Child support is governed by statute and, like child custody, can become complicated. Although the basic formula as set by statute is 18% of the non-custodial parent's gross income for 1 child, 25% for 2 children, 29% for 3 children, 31% for 4 children and an additional 2% for each additional child, there are deviations from the formula that can be considered. The minimum child support allowed is $100.00 per month, per child, and the maximum for each child is determined by the gross income of the non-custodial parent as set out in the statutes, with a cap that is adjusted annually. Under certain conditions, there are deviations from the minimum and maximum amounts. The child support statutes can be found at NRS 125B.070 and NRS 125B.080. You are urged to seek the advice of a private attorney on how to fully address child support and any deviations from the formula. Child support must be reviewed every 3 years or at any time if there is a substantial change of circumstances (such as the loss of a job or the legal responsibility for the support of another family member or another child). It is the responsibility of the parties to request a review and modification of the child support.

Child Visitation: or Parenting Time The statute governing child visitation and exchange is clear. It is not enough to just state “reasonable visitation” in any kind of agreement. The visits and terms of the exchange of the child must be clear and specific. There must be specific days, times and places of exchange included in the agreement, and the holiday calendar must be clearly defined. If there are expenses involved with the exchange and visits, the agreement must state which parent is going to bear the expenses, or, if the expenses are going to be shared. If there is travel involved, who makes the travel arrangements must be stated. If the visitation is going to be “supervised”, the arrangements must be stated as to who will supervise the visits, whether the supervised parenting time will be temporary or permanent, and, if temporary, when unsupervised parenting time will commence, and under what conditions. It must be remembered that the written agreement for visitation or parenting time is the controlling agreement and any verbal agreements are usually not enforceable through the courts.

Complaint: The document filed to start a case. Also may be known as a “Petition”. The “complaint” or “petition” sets out the claims of the “plaintiff” or “petitioner” and tells the court what they want the court to order, as well as the basis for why the court should enter an order granting them what they want. The Complaint, or Petition, is then served on the Defendant, or Respondent, with a Summons notifying the Defendant, or Respondent, that a suit has been filed against them.

Counterclaim While the Complaint or Petition sets out the claims of the “plaintiff” or “petitioner,” a counterclaim sets out the claims of the “defendant” or “respondent”. The counterclaim is included within the Answer to the Complaint that defendant or respondent files. For example, if plaintiff asks for primary physical custody of the children in the Complaint and the defendant wants primary physical custody, the defendant can use the counterclaim to ask for primary physical custody.

Debts: Generally, any bills or debts acquired during the marriage are considered community debts and are equally divided at the time of the divorce. There are exceptions. Debts that are incurred for such things as gambling or for purchasing things that are not for the benefit of the community, may be considered sole and separate debts. Such debts should be discussed with a private attorney.

Default: When a party does not formally, in writing, answer or respond to legal documents served on them, the party that filed the documents can request that the court grant them everything they ask for in the documents. The party upon whom the documents were served is said to have “defaulted” and, because they did not file something saying they disagreed with what is being requested, it is assumed they agree with the requests and the court enters a “default” order. The “default” is most commonly used when a party is served with a divorce complaint and does not file any kind of answer or response and the court grants the divorce on “default”. It is important to remember that there are legal time frames in which an answer or response must be filed.

Defendant: The party that answers or “defends” an action brought against them by the Plaintiff or Petitioner. The Defendant may also be labeled as the Respondent.

Habitual Residence: The state where the child or children have lived for at least the past six months.

Mediation: Both parties meet with a professional “mediator”, usually in an attempt to work out a parenting plan for children involved in a custody dispute. However, the division of property may also be “mediated” under certain circumstances. If you file in Washoe, Clark, Douglas and Carson City Counties, mediation of custody and visitation issues is mandatory if the parents cannot come to an agreement regarding custody and visitation of the children. If you file in Washoe, Clark, Douglas and Carson City Counties, you may use the Court mediation programs in the county in which you file. There are certain circumstances under which mediation can be “waived”. However, those circumstances are very special and if you believe you are eligible for waiver of mediation, you need to speak to a private attorney on how to go about filing the correct documents to request that mediation be waived in your case.

Motion: A request to the court, by one party, to enter an order requiring the other party to do something, or, to prevent the other party from doing something, or, for a clarification or reconsideration of an order that has already issued from the court. For example, the motion may request the court to:

1. Order the other party to do something
2. Prevent the other party from doing something
3. To review and/or change child support
4. To allow the custodial parent to relocate with the children
5. To change provisions of the custody and visitation order or agreement
6. Make the terms of a prior order clearer or easier to understand

This list is only an example of those things that can be addressed in a motion. Unless the motion is an ex parte motion, the motion must be served on the other party and the other party must have an opportunity to file a “response” or “opposition” to the motion.

An ex parte motion is one that is presented to the court without notice to the other party that it is being filed and requests that an immediate order issue from the court without any notice to the other party and without the other party being able to respond to the motion before the order is entered. Usually, the ex parte motion is used only when there is an immediate, physical, danger to children. However, an ex parte motion may also be used in a disputed divorce to protect the assets of the community by preventing both parties from selling, or hiding, or transferring, or giving the assets away. Ex parte motions are extremely rare.

Moving Party: The person who files a motion or brings an action against another party. The moving party may be either the plaintiff or the defendant, or the petitioner or the respondent. For instance, a defendant may file a motion against the plaintiff in an action.

Order To Show Cause Regarding Contempt: When one party is not obeying a court order, the other party may bring a contempt charge against that party. The court will issue the order directing the party charged with not obeying the order to appear and “show cause” why they should not be held in contempt. The moving party, or the one bringing the contempt must prove three things: (1) that there exists a valid court order regarding the issue; (2) that the other party has the ability to obey the order; and, (3) the other party simply chooses not to obey the order. If the party is found in contempt of the court order, the party can be punished. Punishment may range from a fine to jail time.

Petitioner: or Plaintiff: A party that starts or “brings” an action against another party. The party who answers the action, or against whom the action is brought, is termed the Defendant.

Property: Following are terms associated with property.

Assets: Generally, anything acquired or purchased during the time of the marriage is considered a community asset and, therefore, community property, and it usually does not matter if one name is on the property or both names are on the property. Nevada is a “community property” State and the law in Nevada is that community assets are equally divided at the time of a divorce. There are some exceptions, and those should be discussed with a private attorney. The term “community assets” includes: the income of both parties during the marriage and anything purchased with either income, any interest acquired in real property, any retirement funds earned during the marriage, vehicles purchased during the marriage (even if in only one name), furniture purchased during the marriage, etc. In many cases, it does not matter in whose name these things are purchased. Sole and separate property is not usually considered “community property” unless it was given as a gift to the community or the community has acquired an interest in it in another way. If one party “wastes” community assets or give community assets away without the other party’s knowledge or consent, that party may have to reimburse the community for the “wasting” of assets. If there is a question of wasted assets, those should be discussed with a private attorney.

Community Property: Any assets acquired or purchased during the marriage are usually considered “community property”, no matter whose name they are in. That is the starting point for the division of property of the marriage. Nevada is a community property State and it is the law that the division of community property start with an equal division. However, there are important deviations and exceptions to equal community property distribution. See “Assets” above. A private attorney should be consulted regarding division and distribution of community property.

Sole and Separate Property: Sole and separate property are those things Husband and Wife owned prior to the marriage, and it may also include a personal injury settlement received during the marriage by one of the parties, or money or property inherited by a party if the proceeds were kept entirely separate from the community, during the marriage. Sole and separate property remains the property of the individual who owned it prior to the marriage. There are exceptions, such as a home or other real property. The “community” may acquire an interest in a home or real property during the time of the marriage even if it belonged to one party prior to the marriage. If there is a question regarding such an interest, and what percentage the community may have acquired, you are urged to see a private attorney.

Relocation or Moving Out Of The Sate With Children The law is clear on a parent’s relocation with the children. The custodian that wants to relocate out of the State, must, before the move, either have the other parent’s written permission to move out of the State, or, a court order allowing the move if the other parent will not give written permission for the move. The parent wishing to move must file a Motion For Relocation and serve the other parent with the Motion. Leaving the State with the children without either written permission from the other parent or an order from the court allowing the relocation may be the basis for a change of custody of the children and may be prosecuted as a crime. Before leaving the area or State with children, it is urged that you seek the advice of an attorney.

Reply to Counterclaim When defendant or respondent files and serves their answer and counterclaim on the plaintiff or petitioner, the plaintiff or petitioner then has the duty to respond to the counterclaim by filing a Reply to Counterclaim. Within that Reply, plaintiff has the opportunity to tell the court what parts of the counterclaim he/she agrees with and what parts he/she disagrees with. Plaintiff or petitioner has 20 days from the date the counterclaim is served on them to file and serve the Reply. If plaintiff does not file a Reply to Counterclaim within that 20 days, the defendant or respondent has the right to take a default against the plaintiff. If a default is granted, the defendant may get everything she/he asked for in the counterclaim.

Reply to Response or Reply to Opposition: The person who files a motion with the court, has an opportunity to “reply” to the formal “response” or “opposition” to their motion, if one is filed by the opposing party. This “reply” is filed by the “moving party”.

Residency Requirement: One of the parties must be a resident of the State of Nevada and that person is known as the “resident.” In order to establish residency in the State of Nevada, that person must have physically lived and physically been here in the State for at least six (6) weeks immediately prior to filing the Complaint or Petition. If both people are residents of the State of Nevada, only one is actually designated as the “resident” for purposes of the filling out and filing of the Declaration of Resident Witness Form.

A child, or the children, MUST be a resident, or residents, of the State of Nevada for a period in excess of six (6) MONTHS before the State of Nevada can enter any orders regarding custody, or visitation, of the child or children. This is STATE and FEDERAL LAW. If the child, or children, are not residents of the State of Nevada for a period of more than six (6) months immediately prior to the filing of the Petition or Complaint, the State of Nevada has no jurisdiction over orders regarding the children. THERE ARE EXCEPTIONS, but those should be discussed with a private attorney. The parties cannot automatically agree to waive the jurisdiction issue.

- Resident Witness: A person that will swear under oath or on the Declaration of Resident Witness that one of the parties has been physically present in the State of Nevada for a period of at least six (6) weeks immediately prior to the filing of the Complaint or Petition. The Resident Witness may be a friend, a family member or a co-employee.
- Response or Opposition: An answer to a motion that has been filed and served. The person upon whom the motion has been served has ten (10) days to file a formal “response” or “opposition” to the motion if the motion is personally served on them and thirteen (13) days from the date of mailing in which to file a formal “response” or “opposition” if the motion is mailed to them. If no formal “response” or “opposition” is filed, in some counties, the person making the motion may then request to have their motion submitted to the judge for a decision and the judge can grant the person everything they asked for in the motion. See also “default”.
- Summons: Notice to a party that a complaint or petition has been filed against them in court. The Summons is a court document which is “issued” by the court clerk at the time the complaint or petition is filed in. It must be served on the other party, with a copy of the complaint or petition, usually by personal service by a third, independent, party, but there are some other methods of service by court order. The party upon which it is served, has twenty days (not counting the day of service) in which to file a written response, or answer, with the court. A copy of the written response, or answer, must be served by the party filing it, on the other party.
- Wage Assignment: The legal process of having child support payments deducted directly from the paycheck of the person who owes the support. The payment is then sent by the employer to the State Collection and Disbursement Unit or to the District Attorney’s Office Family Support Unit who will send it to the person who is owed the child support.

- (3) For three children, 29 percent;
- (4) For four children, 31 percent; and
- (5) For each additional child, an additional 2 percent, of a parent's gross monthly income, but not more than the presumptive maximum amount per month per child set forth for the parent in subsection 2 for an obligation for support determined pursuant to subparagraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, unless the court sets forth findings of fact as to the basis for a different amount pursuant to subsection 6 of NRS 125B.080.

2. For the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection 1, the presumptive maximum amount per month per child for an obligation for support, as adjusted pursuant to subsection 3, is: (SEE ATTACHED SCHEDULE)

If a parent's gross monthly income is equal to or greater than $14,583, the presumptive maximum amount the parent may be required to pay pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 1 is $800.

3. The presumptive maximum amounts set forth in subsection 2 for the obligation for support must be adjusted on July 1 of each year for the fiscal year beginning that day and ending June 30 in a rounded dollar amount corresponding to the percentage of increase or decrease in the Consumer Price Index (All Items) published by the United States Department of Labor for the preceding calendar year. On April 1 of each year, the Office of Court Administrator shall determine the amount of the increase or decrease required by this subsection, establish the adjusted amounts to take effect on July 1 of that year and notify each district court of the adjusted amounts.

4. As used in this section, "Office of Court Administrator" means the Office of Court Administrator created pursuant to NRS 1.320.

(Added to NRS by 1987, 2267; A 1991, 1334; 2001, 1865; 2003, 101, 342)

NRS 125B.080 Amount of payment: Determination. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 425.450:

1. A court of this State shall apply the appropriate formula set forth in NRS 125B.070 to:

- (a) Determine the required support in any case involving the support of children.
- (b) Any request filed after July 1, 1987, to change the amount of the required support of children.

2. If the parties agree as to the amount of support required, the parties shall certify that the amount of support is consistent with the appropriate formula set forth in NRS 125B.070. If the amount of support deviates from the formula, the parties must stipulate sufficient facts in accordance with subsection 9 which justify the deviation to the court, and the court shall make a written finding thereon. Any inaccuracy or falsification of financial information which results in an inappropriate award of support is grounds for a motion to modify or adjust the award.

3. If the parties disagree as to the amount of the gross monthly income of either party, the court shall determine the amount and may direct either party to furnish financial information or other records, including income tax returns for the preceding 3 years. Once a court has established an obligation for support by reference to a formula set forth in NRS 125B.070, any subsequent modification or adjustment of that support, except for any modification or adjustment made pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 125B.070 or NRS 425.450 or as a result of a review conducted pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 125B.145, must be based upon changed circumstances.

4. Notwithstanding the formulas set forth in NRS 125B.070, the minimum amount of support that may be awarded by a court in any case is $100 per month per child, unless the court makes a written finding that the obligor is unable to pay the minimum amount. Willful underemployment or unemployment is not a sufficient cause to deviate from the awarding of at least the minimum amount.

5. It is presumed that the basic needs of a child are met by the formulas set forth in NRS 125B.070. This presumption may be rebutted by evidence proving that the needs of a particular child are not met by the applicable formula.

6. If the amount of the awarded support for a child is greater or less than the amount which would be established under the applicable formula, the court shall:

- (a) Set forth findings of fact as to the basis for the deviation from the formula; and
- (b) Provide in the findings of fact the amount of support that would have been established under the applicable formula.

7. Expenses for health care which are not reimbursed, including expenses for medical, surgical, dental, orthodontic and optical expenses, must be borne equally by both parents in the absence of extraordinary circumstances.

8. If a parent who has an obligation for support is willfully underemployed or unemployed to avoid an obligation for support of a child, that obligation must be based upon the parent's true potential earning capacity.

9. The court shall consider the following factors when adjusting the amount of support of a child upon specific findings of fact:

- (a) The cost of health insurance;
 - (b) The cost of child care;
 - (c) Any special educational needs of the child;
 - (d) The age of the child;
 - (e) The legal responsibility of the parents for the support of others;
 - (f) The value of services contributed by either parent;
 - (g) Any public assistance paid to support the child;
 - (h) Any expenses reasonably related to the mother's pregnancy and confinement;
 - (i) The cost of transportation of the child to and from visitation if the custodial parent moved with the child from the jurisdiction of the court which ordered the support and the noncustodial parent remained;
 - (j) The amount of time the child spends with each parent;
 - (k) Any other necessary expenses for the benefit of the child; and
 - (l) The relative income of both parents.
- (Added to NRS by 1987, 2267; A 1989, 859; 1991, 1334; 1993, 486; 1997, 2295; 2001, 1866)

CHILD SUPPORT WHEN PARENTS ARE SHARING

JOINT PHYSICAL CUSTODY

OR

WHEN THE CHILDREN ARE GOING TO BE SPLIT BETWEEN PARENTS

The Nevada Supreme Court set out an additional formula to that found in the child support statutes for parents who share joint physical custody of their children or who are going to split the custody of the children.

Joint physical custody presumes the child is going to spend an approximate equal amount of time with each parent.

Split custody is when one parent has the physical custody of more children than the other parent. For instance: In a family of three children: Father has primary physical custody of two children and Mother has primary physical custody of one child.

Joint Physical Custody

The Court directed that the child support be figured according to the percentage as stated in NRS 125B.070 and the parent earning the most pays the parent earning the less, the difference. At the present time, $100 per month, per child is the minimum even if a parent is not working.

For example: If parents are sharing joint physical custody of one child and mother is not working, the child support would be figured as follows:

18% of Father's gross monthly income

$100 for Mother's obligation

The difference between the two would be the child support Father would pay to Mother.

Another example: If parents are sharing joint physical custody of two children and both parents are working:

25% of Father's gross monthly income

25% of Mother's gross monthly income

The parent who earns the most would pay the parent who makes the less the difference.

Split Custody

Both parents have a support obligation to the other and it must be figured according to the statutory formula.

For example: There are 3 children of the family. Father has the primary physical custody of 2 and Mother has the primary physical custody of 1.

Mother would have an obligation of 25% of her gross income for the two children who primarily live with Father.

Father would have an obligation of 18% of his gross income for the one child who primarily lives with Mother.

Subtract the less from the greater and the difference is paid to the parent who has the lesser obligation.

Some figures on the example:

Mother's gross monthly income is $1600.

25% of that is $400 - that is mother's obligation for the 2 children living with father

Father's gross monthly income is $1700.

18% of that is $306 - that is father's obligation for the 1 child living with mother

Therefore, Mother would pay Father the difference - $94 a month in child support.

Please note: If the presumptive maximum is in the equation, that figure is used after the difference is figured.

IMPORTANT REMINDER

The deviations listed in NRS 125B.080 still may be figured into the formula to increase or decrease the child support obligation.
