19 Due to the COVID-19 National emergency, the Court finds it appropriate to continue hearing
20 on all out of custody defendants' cases as follows:

14 filing a "Notice of No Stipulation to Continuance ("Notice")". The Notice must state in detail the 15 grounds for the objection. The Notice will be reviewed by the Court and the Court will enter its 16 Order addressing the specific circumstances of the case while also considering the local and statewide
17 impact of the National Emergency.
18

19 If an in-custody defendant is scheduled for a hearing and counsel expects the defendant's
20 custody status to change forty-eight (48) hours or more (i.e. by posting bail) before a scheduled
21 hearing, counsel is directed to notify the department where the case is assigned and if the defendant is 22 released, follow the above directives.
