☐ Step 1: Sign up for an electronic filing account (if you don't already have one)

The Second Judicial District Court requires all documents to be electronically filed using the eFlex system. Sign up for a free eFlex account in person at the Resource Center, or online at: <https://www.washoecourts.com/EFiling/SignUp>.

☐ Step 2: Fill out the following forms:

- Confidential Family Court Information Sheet
- Answer to Complaint for Divorce with Minor Children and Counterclaim, including Appendix A and Appendix B
- General Financial Disclosure Form

Note: You are the defendant in this divorce case. The party that filed the initial complaint is the plaintiff.

If you include paystubs or tax information with your General Financial Disclosure Form, conceal (blackout) any personal identifying numbers (such as bank account numbers and social security numbers).

☐ Step 3: File your forms

Electronically file the documents yourself or bring your completed documents to the Resource Center to get help filing them.

There is a filing fee for your Answer and Counterclaim. If you are paying the filing fee with a credit card, the credit card must be added into eFlex before you electronically file your documents. Cash payments will need to be brought to the Resource Center. If you cannot afford the filing fee, there is an F-6 Application and Declaration to Waive Fees and Costs that can be used to ask for the filing fee to be waived.

□ Step 4: Service

You must serve (give) the other party a copy of your Answer and Counterclaim, Appendices, and General Financial Disclosure Form (including paystubs). The court WILL NOT AND CANNOT serve the documents for you.

Service of your Answer and Counterclaim, Appendices, and General Financial Disclosure Form may be done by electronic service (eFlex), mail, or personal service.

The Confidential Family Court Information Sheet does not need to be served.

Service by eFlex:

Service will be made electronically by eFlex if the other party has an active eFlex account.

To view which parties in the case will be served electronically, log into eFlex. On the home page, in the provided box, type in your case number, then click the blue "Service List" button. The eFlex system will generate a list of who will receive electronic notice and who will need to be served another way.

If the other party does not have an eFlex account, you can serve them by mail or personal service. You can print file-stamped copies of your documents from your eFlex account or visit the Resource Center to obtain copies for a fee.

Service by mail:

Service may be made by regular mail, certified mail, or registered mail. If you serve by certified mail, keep the white slips and green return cards to attach to your Proof of Service form.

Personal service:

Service may be made by handing a file-stamped copy of your documents to the other party.

□ Step 5: File proof of service

Complete the Proof of Service form with the date you served the documents and how you served the other party.

Electronically file your Proof of Service yourself or bring it to the Resource Center to get help filing it.

(Document Type: Proof of Service)

☐ Step 6: Response to your Answer and Counterclaim

The other party has 21 days to respond to your Answer and Counterclaim (if you served them personally or by eFlex), starting the day after service. If you served them by mail, they have 24 days after the day of mailing to respond with an Answer to Counterclaim.

If the other party does not file a response, you may request a default on the counterclaim. A P-1 Default packet is available online at <https://www.washoecourts.com/> or at the Resource Center or the Law Library.

☐ Step 7: Attend your hearing

Your first hearing is called a Case Management Conference Hearing.

A hearing must be scheduled; the court will not automatically set one for you.

If the hearing has not already been set by the other party, contact the Judicial Assistant in the department in which your case will be heard to ask to schedule a hearing.

Go to <https://www.washoecourts.com/Judges> to look up the contact information for your department. Or you may reach out to the Law Library or Resource Center for your department’s contact information.

The Judicial Assistant will file a Notice/Order Setting Case Management Conference Hearing into your case. You will receive an eFlex notification when the Notice/Order has been filed. Read the Notice/Order for further instructions on your next steps, and details about the time and location of your hearing.
