NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980,

1 adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International law, apply if a parent 2 abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. The parties are also put on notice of the 3 following provisions:

4 NRS 125C.0045(8) regarding the Hague Convention:

5 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant 6 commitments in a foreign country:

7 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order 8 for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of 9 habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms 10 of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

11 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the 12 parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an 13 imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside 14 the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount 15 determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of 16 locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual 17 residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed 18 outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has 19 significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a 20 presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully 21 removing or concealing the child.

22 NRS 125C.006 regarding relocation with minor children:

23 1. If primary physical custody has been established pursuant to an 24 order, judgment or decree of a court and the custodial parent intends 25 to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a 26 place within this State that is at such a distance that would 27 substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a 28 meaningful relationship with the child, and the custodial parent desires to take the child with him or her, the custodial parent shall,
before relocating:

(a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial parent to relocate with the child; and

(b) If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for permission to relocate with the child.

29 NRS 125C.0065 regarding relocation with minor children:

30 1. If joint physical custody has been established pursuant to an 31 order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate 32 his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within 33 this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the 34 ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with 35 the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him 36 or her, the relocating parent shall, before relocating:

(a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating
parent to relocate with the child; and

(b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.
