18 This Court having considered the Joint Petition to Establish Custody and Visitation and all of 19 the papers and pleadings on file, finds as follows:

- 20 1. That all of the allegations contained in the documents on file are true;
- 21 2. That this Court has the necessary UCCJEA and PKPA initial and continuing jurisdiction to 22 enter orders regarding child custody and visitation on the following children of the union 23 and hereby exercises said jurisdiction; and
- 24 3. That petitioners have entered into an agreement settling all issues regarding the care, 25 custody, visitation, health insurance, and child support of the child(ren) over which this 26 Court has jurisdiction, said agreement being in the best interest of the child(ren), and 27 petitioners have requested that their agreement, as set forth in their joint petition be ratified, 28 confirmed and incorporated into this order as though fully set forth herein.

1 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the agreement, as it is stated in the Petitioners' Joint Petition,

15 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND THE PARTIES ARE PUT ON NOTICE that they are 16 subject to the requirements of the following Nevada Revised Statutes:

18 NRS 125C.0045(6) regarding abduction, concealment or detention of a child:

19 PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER:

20 THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A 21 CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A
22 CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS
23 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody 24 to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who 25 willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

26 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, 27 adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International law, apply if a parent 28 abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. The parties are also put on notice of the

1 following provisions in NRS 125C.0045(8):

2 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant 3 commitments in a foreign country:

4 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order 5 for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of 6 habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms
7 of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

8 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the 9 parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an 10 imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside 11 the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount 12 determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of 13 locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual 14 residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed 15 outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has 16 significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a 17 presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully 18 removing or concealing the child.

11 NRS 125C.006 regarding relocation with minor children

12 1. If primary physical custody has been established pursuant to an 13 order, judgment or decree of a court and the custodial parent intends 14 to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a 15 place within this State that is at such a distance that would 16 substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a 17 meaningful relationship with the child, and the custodial parent 18 desires to take the child with him or her, the custodial parent shall, 19 before relocating:

20 (a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial
21 parent to relocate with the child; and

22 (b) If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent, petition 23 the court for permission to relocate with the child.

18 NRS 125C.0065 regarding relocation with minor children

19 1. If joint physical custody has been established pursuant to an 20 order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate 21 his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within 22 this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the 23 ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with 24 the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him 25 or her, the relocating parent shall, before relocating:

26 (a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating
27 parent to relocate with the child; and

28 (b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

26 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that parties are subject to the following 27 regarding obligation of support for the minor child(ren):

28 If you want to adjust the amount of child support established in this

1 order, you MUST file a motion to modify the order with or submit a 2 stipulation to the court. If a motion to modify the order is not filed or 3 a stipulation is not submitted, the child support obligation established 4 in this order will continue until such time as all children who are the 5 subject of this order reach 18 years of age or, if the youngest child 6 who is subject to this order is still in high school when he or she 7 reaches 18 years of age, when the child graduates from high school or 8 reaches 19 years of age, whichever comes first. Unless the parties
9 agree otherwise in a stipulation, any modification made pursuant to a 10 motion to modify the order will be effective as of the date the motion 11 was filed.
