TEMPORARY PROTECTION ORDER
(WITHOUT MINOR CHILDREN)
PACKET F-14

Use this packet only if the following statements are true:

- You can request a protection order if you and the adverse party are:
- Closely related by blood or marriage (parent, child, grandmother/father, in-law, step-parent)
 - o This does not include a sibling or cousin. Unless there is a custodial or guardianship relationship between you and that sibling or cousin.
 - Married or registered domestic partners
 - Divorced or separated
 - Dating or used to date (“frequent, intimate associations primarily characterized by the expectation of affection or sexual involvement.” The term does not include a casual relationship)
 - Parents of a child in common
- and you have been a victim of one of the following acts of domestic violence:
- A battery
 - An assault
 - Coercion pursuant to NRS 207.190
 - A sexual assault
 - A knowing, purposeful, or reckless course of conduct intended to harass the other. Such conduct may include, but is not limited to: stalking, arson, trespassing, larceny, destruction of private property, carrying a concealed weapon without a permit, injuring or killing an animal, burglary, or an invasion of the home.
 - A false imprisonment.
 - Pandering (Forcing someone to prostitute themselves or their child)

If your relationship to the other party is not one of the above or you have not been a victim of one of the above acts of domestic violence, you may be able to seek a protection order against stalking or harassment at justice court. Inquire at Reno Justice Court 775-325-6500, Sparks Justice Court 775-353-7602, –or– Incline Village/Crystal Bay Justice Court 775-832-4100 to determine your eligibility

INSTRUCTIONS: STEP 3

Filing the Documents

You may file your documents in person at any of the following locations:

- The Self Help Center – 1st Floor, 1 South Sierra
- Protection Order Help Center – Room 308, 1 South Sierra
- Law Library – 1st Floor, 75 Court Street
- Filing Office – 1st Floor, 75 Court Street

If you are an electronic filer you may upload your documents to eFlex. For more information about eFlex or how to sign up please contact the Self Help Center, Law Library, or Filing Office. Once the documents have been electronically filed, print a file-stamped copy. Make sure to keep the original copies and a file-stamped copy of all the documents you file for your personal records.

There is no filing fee charged when filing these documents.

INSTRUCTIONS: STEP 4

Application Review

Once you have filed your documents they will be forwarded to a Court Master for review. A court employee will contact you regarding the status of your application. If the Court Master has questions for you, a court employee will call you to schedule a telephonic or in-person interview.

You will be notified by phone or an email from eFlex of the Court Master's decision. If you do not have a phone number, it is your responsibility to call or return to court the next day to obtain your order.

What Happens Now?

The Court Master may set a hearing on, grant, or deny your application.

Hearing on your Application

If the Court Master needs additional information and wants to hear from both you and the adverse party before making a decision, an order setting a hearing will be issued. The date and time of the hearing will be listed on the order. The Court Master will hear from both you and the adverse party. At the end of the hearing, the Court Master will either grant or deny your application, and an order will be provided to you and the adverse party.

Grant

If the Court Master grants your application, a Temporary Protection Order will be issued and it must be personally served on the adverse party. To get file-stamped copies of your documents to have served on the adverse party, you can return to the court to pick up a copy –or– you may print them from your eFlex account. See Instructions: Step 5 & 6 on how to have the Temporary Protection Order served.

Extension hearing: The date and time of the extension hearing will be on the first page of the protection order. You must appear for the hearing for the court to grant you an Extended Protection Order. At the extension hearing, the Court Master will hear from both you and the adverse party. If the Court Master finds that there is a legal basis to extend the Temporary Protection Order, you will be provided with the Extended Protection Order at the end of the hearing. If you want an advocate to accompany you to court, you must contact a community advocacy group.

Deny

If the Court Master denies your application, an order with the basis for the denial will be issued and there will be no further action by the court. You may re-apply if there are further incidents which you believe are acts of domestic violence against you committed by the adverse party.

Your hearing will be held on the 1st floor of 1 S. Sierra. If you wish, you may wait for your hearing in the Protection Order Help Center on the 3rd floor.

INSTRUCTIONS: STEP 5

Only use this document if the Court Master granted your application and the adverse party lives or works in Washoe County.

If the adverse party does not live or work in Washoe County, contact the Self Help Center, Law Library, or Protection Order Help Center for information on how to have the documents served.

Complete the Civil Instruction Sheet as Shown:

1) Print the requested information about the adverse party. Make sure to fill out as much information as possible, the Sheriff's Office will not be able to complete service without this information.

2) Print the requested information about you.

INSTRUCTIONS: STEP 6

Getting the Temporary Protection Order Served

For this particular type of case, the Washoe County Sheriff's Office will serve the adverse party free of charge. You will need to bring to the Civil Section of Washoe County Sheriff's Office (775-328-3310) at 911 Parr Blvd., Reno, NV 89512:

- A completed Civil Instruction Sheet
- Temporary Protection Order Application
- Temporary Protection Order
- Order Setting Extension Hearing, if applicable

You can get file-stamped copies of the filed documents at the courthouse or you may print them from your eFlex account.

If the Sheriff's Office is unable to serve the adverse party, please contact the Self Help Center, Law Library, or Protection Order Help Center for more information on other ways to have the adverse party served.

What Happens Now?

You may want to consider bringing copies of your Temporary or Extended Protection Order to your place of work or anyone else who may need to know about the order.

If the protection order is being violated, contact law enforcement. Bring any violation documentation to the extension hearing. Contact the Self Help Center, Law Library, or Protection Order Help Center with any questions.

Modifications to or Terminating a Protection Order

If you want to make any changes to your protection order or want to dissolve the order, you may file a motion with the court. If the protection order has not been extended, you will use different documents than if the protection order has been extended. Contact the Self Help Center or Law Library for forms.
