Use this packet only if the following statements are true:

- The adverse party is under the age of 18.

- You can request a protection order if you and the adverse party are:
 - Closely related by blood or marriage (parent, child, grandmother/father, in-law, stepparent)
 - o This does not include a sibling or cousin. Unless there is a custodial or guardianship relationship between you and that sibling or cousin.
 - Married or registered domestic partners
 - Divorced or separated
 - Dating or used to date (“frequent, intimate associations primarily characterized by the expectation of affection or sexual involvement.” The term does not include a casual relationship)
 - Parents of a child in common
 - You are the minor child of any of the above people
 - You are the minor child of the Adverse Party
 - You are the custodian or legal guardian of the Adverse Party’s minor child

- and you or the minor child has been a victim of one of the following acts of domestic violence:
 - A battery
 - An assault
 - Coercion pursuant to NRS 207.190:
 - 1. It is unlawful for a person, with the intent to compel another to do or abstain from doing an act which the other person has a right to do or abstain from doing, to:
 - (a) Use violence or inflict injury upon the other person or any of the other person’s family, or upon the other person’s property, or threaten such violence or injury;
 - (b) Deprive the person of any tool, implement or clothing, or hinder the person in the use thereof; or
 - (c) Attempt to intimidate the person by threats or force.
 - A sexual assault
 - A knowing, purposeful, or reckless course of conduct intended to harass the other. Such conduct may include, but is not limited to: stalking, arson, trespassing, larceny, destruction of private property, carrying a concealed weapon without a permit, injuring or killing an animal, burglary, or an invasion of the home
 - A false imprisonment
 - Pandering (Forcing someone to prostitute themselves or their child)

If your relationship to the other party is not one of the above or you have not been a victim of one of the above acts of domestic violence, you may be able to seek a protection order against stalking or harassment. Contact the Protection Order Help Center for further information.

INSTRUCTIONS: STEP 5

Check that you have completed all required forms listed on page 3 of this packet.

INSTRUCTIONS: STEP 6

Filing the Documents

- You may file your documents in person at any of the following locations:
 - Protection Order Help Center - Room 308, 1 South Sierra
 - Resource Center - 3rd Floor, 1 South Sierra
 - Law Library - 1st Floor, 75 Court Street
- If you are an electronic filer you may upload your documents to eFlex. File all 5 required forms.
 - ❖ If you want the UCCJEA Declaration form sealed, you must select “Yes” on number 9 AND click the “Sealed” box prior uploading the document. If you do not check the box, it will be public. The option to seal only applies to this form and can be unsealed by the Court Master or Judge.
 - ❖ Once the documents have been electronically filed, print a file-stamped copy. Make sure to keep the original copies and a file-stamped copy of all the documents you file for your personal records.
- For more information about eFlex or how to sign up please contact the Protection Order Help Center, Resource Center, or Law Library.
- There is no filing fee charged when filing these documents.

INSTRUCTIONS: STEP 7

Application Review

Once your documents have been filed, they will be forwarded to a Court Master for review. After review, the Court Master will issue an Order based on the information you provided in your application.

A court employee will contact you by phone and/or email regarding the Court Master’s decision.

- ❖ If you do not have a phone number, it is your responsibility to call or return to court the next day to obtain your Order.

If you have an eFlex account, you will be notified by email from eFlex of the decision. You can call the Protection Order Help Center to check the status of your application at any time.

What Does My Order Mean?

The Court Master will issue an Order granting, setting a hearing, or denying your application.

Granted

If your application is granted, a Temporary Protection Order will be issued. The adverse party must be personally served with this Order.

- ❖ See Instructions: Step 7 on how to have the Order served.

Order Setting Hearing to Extend: If you requested an Extended Protection Order a hearing will be set to determine if the Order will be extended.

- The date and time of the extension hearing is on the first page of the Order.
- You must appear for the hearing for it to be granted. The adverse party may also be at the extension hearing.
- Bring any documentation to the extension hearing.
- If you want an advocate to accompany you to court, you must contact a community advocacy group.

At hearing, the Court Master will hear from both parties. Based on the testimony provided, the Court Master will grant or deny the request for an Extended Protection Order. An Order will be provided to both parties at the end of the hearing.

Order Setting Hearing

If the Court Master issues an Order Setting Hearing, they need additional information from you and the adverse party before deciding to grant or deny your application.

- The date and time of the hearing is on the first page of the Order.
- You must appear for the hearing for it to be granted. The adverse party may also be at the hearing.
- Bring any documentation to the hearing.
- If you want an advocate to accompany you to court, you must contact a community advocacy group.

At hearing, the Court Master will hear from both parties. Based on the testimony provided, the Court Master will either grant or deny your application. An Order will be provided to both parties at the end of the hearing.

Denied

If the Court Master denies your application, an Order will be issued with the basis for the denial. There will be no further action by the court. You may re-apply at any time once an Order has been issued.

To get copies of your documents you can:

- pick up them up in person at the Protection Order Help Center
- court employees can email copies or deposit copies in the US Mail
- you may print them from your eFlex account

INSTRUCTIONS: STEP 8

Getting the Temporary Protection Order Served

For this particular case, the Washoe County Sheriff's Office will serve the adverse party and his/her parent or guardian free of charge if the adverse party lives or works in Washoe County. The Protection Order Help Center will provide the Washoe County Sheriff's Office with a copy of your:

- Completed Civil Instruction Sheet
- Temporary Protection Order
- Order Setting Hearing (if applicable)
- Order Setting Extension Hearing (if applicable)
- Temporary Protection Order Application
- UCCJEA

The adverse party will not get a copy of the Confidential Information Sheet.

If the adverse party lives in another county, please contact the Protection Order Help Center for more information on how to have the adverse party served.

Modifications to or Dissolving a Protection Order

If you want to make any changes to your Protection Order or want to dissolve the Order, you may file a motion with the court. Contact the Protection Order Help Center, Resource Center, or Law Library for forms.

Additional Information

- Consider bringing copies of your Temporary or Extended Protection Order to your place of work or anywhere else that may need to know about the order.
- If the protection order is being violated, contact law enforcement.
- Contact the Protection Order Help Center with any questions.

Legal Assistance Information

The information in this packet is provided as a courtesy only. This packet is not a substitute for the advice of an attorney. Counsel is always recommended for legal matters.

If you do not have an attorney, you are encouraged to seek the advice of a licensed attorney or contact the Resource Center or the Law Library. The Resource Center and the Law Library staff cannot give legal advice but can give information regarding court procedures.
