a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the

2 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, 3 adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International law, apply if a 4 parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. The parties are also put on notice
5 of the following provisions in NRS 125C.0045(8):

7 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant 8 commitments in a foreign country:

9 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order 10 for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual 11 residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the 12 Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

13 (b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the 14 parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an 15 imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside 16 the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount 17 determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of 18 locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence 19 if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the 20 country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant 21 commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that 22 the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or 23 concealing the child.

24 NRS 125C.006 regarding relocation with minor children

25 1. If primary physical custody has been established pursuant to an 26 order, judgment or decree of a court and the custodial parent intends to 27 relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place 28 within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the custodial parent desires to take the child with him or her, the custodial parent shall, before relocating:

(a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial parent to relocate with the child; and

(b) If the noncustodial parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for permission to relocate with the child.

NRS 125C.0065 regarding relocation with minor children

1. If joint physical custody has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her, the relocating parent shall, before relocating:

(a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent to relocate with the child; and

(b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that parties are subject to the following regarding obligation of support for the minor child(ren):

If you want to adjust the amount of child support established in this order, you MUST file a motion to modify the order with or submit a stipulation to the court. If a motion to modify the order is not filed or a stipulation is not submitted, the child support obligation established in this order will continue until such time as all children who are the subject of this order reach 18 years of age or, if the youngest child who is subject to this order is still in high school when he or she reaches 18 years of age, when the child graduates from high school or reaches 19 years of age, whichever comes first. Unless the parties agree otherwise in a stipulation, any modification made pursuant to a motion to modify the order will be effective as of the date the motion was filed.
