20
21 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, 22 adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International law, apply if a 23 parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country. The parties are also put on notice 24 of the following provisions in NRS 125C.0045(8):

25 If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant 26 commitments in a foreign country:

27 (a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the 28 order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

(b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

11 before relocating:

12 (a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the noncustodial 13 parent to relocate with the child; and 19 order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to
