Discovery

Discovery is a formal process in which all parties must share information in certain time frames before and after their first case management conference. Parties may request exemption from such rules for good reason shown. For further information, please see NRCP 16.2.

Place an "X" in a box to select the statements below that apply to you.

H. I request exemption from formal discovery for one or more of the following good cause reasons:

- 1. There are no minor children involved in this matter.
- 2. The parties have few assets and debts together.
- 3. Gathering all of the documentation in the time periods required creates a hardship.
- 4. Other: _____

If more room is needed, attach additional sheets.

Additional Relief

Do you have any other requests you would like the Court to consider?

If so, please list in detail below.

I. I request the additional relief listed below:

If more room is needed, attach additional sheets.

1 J. I reserve the right to amend this Complaint, and to request additional and/or modified relief.

2 K. I ask for judgment against my spouse as follows:

- 3 1. That I be granted a divorce;
- 4 2. That the Court grant me the relief requested in this Complaint; and
- 5 3. For other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper in this action.
