Instructions:

☐ Step 1: Sign up for an electronic filing account (if you don't already have one)

The Second Judicial District Court requires all documents to be electronically filed using the eFlex system. Sign up for a free eFlex account in person at the Resource Center, or online at: <https://www.washoecourts.com/EFiling/SignUp>.

☐ Step 2: Fill out the following forms

- Motion for an Order to Enforce and/or for an Order to Show Cause Regarding Contempt
- Index of Exhibits and Exhibit Cover Page
- Declaration of Moving Party

Attach as Exhibit 1: A copy of the existing court order the other party is not following.

If you are attaching additional exhibits that support your motion, each exhibit needs its own Exhibit Cover Page and must be listed on the Index of Exhibits.

The Declaration of Moving Party form must be fully completed and filed along with your Motion, even if it contains the same or similar information as your Motion.

If you are requesting the court enter a judgment/confirm a past order for child support, spousal support, or alimony arrearages: You must file an F-7 Declaration and Schedule of Arrearages with this motion. The F-7 is available online at washoecourts.com or in-person at the Resource Center or the Law Library.

☐ Step 3: File your forms with the court

Electronically file the documents yourself or bring your completed documents to the Resource Center to get help filing them.

□ Step 4: Service

You must serve (provide) the other party with a copy of your Motion and Declaration (and any exhibits). Service of your Motion may be done by electronic service (eFlex), mail, or personal service. The court WILL NOT AND CANNOT serve the documents for you.

Service by eFlex:

Service will be made electronically by eFlex if the other party has an active eFlex account.

To view which parties in the case will be served electronically, log into eFlex. On the home page, in the provided box, type in your case number, then click the blue “Service List” button. The eFlex system will generate a list of who will receive electronic notice and who will need to be served another way.

If the other party does not have an eFlex account, you can serve them by mail or personal service. You can print file-stamped copies of your documents from your eFlex account or visit the Resource Center to obtain copies for a fee.

Service by mail:

Service may be made by regular mail, certified mail, or registered mail. If you serve by certified mail, keep the white slips and green return cards to attach to your Proof of Service form.

Personal service:

Service may be made by handing a file-stamped copy of your documents to the other party.

□ Step 5: File proof of service

After you have served the other party, you must file proof of service with the court.

A “Notice of Electronic Filing” will be generated by the eFlex system when any documents are filed into the case. A “Notice of Electronic Filing” does not replace the requirement of filing proof of service with the court.

Complete the first Proof of Service form with the date you served the documents and how you served the other party.

Electronically file your Proof of Service yourself or bring it to the Resource Center to get help filing it.

□ Step 6: Response to your Motion

After you file and serve your documents, the other party can file their response, also known as an Opposition, to your Motion.

If you served your Motion through eFlex or personal service, the other party has 14 days, beginning the day after service, to file an Opposition to your Motion.

If you served the other party by U.S. mail, they have 17 days, beginning the day after mailing, to file an Opposition to your Motion.

If the other party files an Opposition to your motion: You have 7 days to file a Reply (10 days after date of mailing if you were served by mail). A Reply to Opposition is included in this packet and is optional.

If the other party does not file an Opposition to your motion: You may discard the Reply to Opposition form.

Step 7: Submit your Motion to the judge for review

A Request for Submission form is used to inform the court that your Motion is ready for review and that the time for opposition has passed.

Whether or not the other party files an Opposition, you must file a Request for Submission to have your Motion reviewed by the judge.

You must allow the other party the full amount of time to oppose your Motion before filing the Request for Submission.

Step 8: Fill out and file the following forms:

- Reply to Opposition (if applicable)
- Request for Submission
- Second Proof of Service

You must serve (provide) the other party with a copy of your Reply to Opposition (if applicable) and Request for Submission. Fill out the second Proof of Service form with the names of the documents you served.
