Motion for Permission to Relocate M – 9

Used to request permission to relocate outside of the State of Nevada with children after an order for custody and visitation was issued with this Court.

EX PARTE MOTIONS

The Latin term “ex parte” essentially means without the other party. With very few exceptions, Judges and their staff cannot communicate with one party to a case without the other party knowing exactly what was communicated and the other party having an opportunity to respond before the Court makes a decision.

Ex Parte Motions – motions that seek an order from the Court before the other party has notice and an opportunity to respond – can only be filed when the law allows an exception to the rule that prohibits ex parte communications with the Court. In the Family Division, Ex Parte Motions are allowed when the Court’s Order restrains both parties’ actions relating to property and finances, when the Court’s Order is necessary because a child’s health and safety is in danger, and in a few other circumstances.

Ex Parte Motions cannot be used to open a case.

Ex Parte Motion Regarding Children E – 1

Used when an emergency situation exists that requires a court order regarding children.

Ex Parte Motion – General E – 2

Used to request a court order when there is an emergency situation that does not involve children.

Ex Parte Motion for Mutual Restraining Order of Assets and Debts Only E – 3

Used to freeze or protect assets and debts of a marriage so assets cannot be disposed of or hidden from the Court and debts cannot be incurred for any reason except for the necessity of life.

Ex Parte Motion for Publication of Summons E – 4

Used to request the Court’s permission to serve documents on the other party by publishing them in the newspaper. Used when one party has made a diligent effort to find the other party, but still cannot find them.

Ex Parte Motion for Order Shortening Time E – 7

Used to ask the Court to issue an order shortening the time the opposing party has to file a response or opposition. Filed at the same time as the motion, petition, or complaint and cannot be shortened more than five days. This packet is not to be used to get an earlier court date.

Ex Parte Motion – Non-Emergency E – 8

Used when no emergency exists, but an order from the Court is necessary to accomplish something, time does not allow for the normal motion process, and the rights of the other party are not affected by any order that may be issued.

Ex Parte Motion to Open a Sealed Adoption File Form Only

Used to request the Court unseal an adoption file for a specific reason and specific information.

STIPULATIONS

Stipulations are used when both parties agree to make changes on an existing court order.
