ATTENTION

THIS PACKET IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR THE ADVICE OF AN ATTORNEY

IMPORTANT

If either party is in the military, special rules may apply and it is recommended you seek the advice of an attorney.

Counsel Is Always Recommended For Legal Matters

The law allows any person to represent himself or herself in a legal action. However, filing papers with the court and representing yourself in the courtroom can involve complicated legal issues. This packet does not address all the legal issues involved in bringing your matter before the court. This packet is created to help you access the legal system without the assistance of an attorney.

When representing yourself, you are responsible for understanding the law that governs your case and for filing the proper legal documents. The laws and rules are set out in the Nevada Revised Statutes, The Rules of Civil Procedure, and the local rules governing the jurisdiction in which you are filing your documents.

When you sign these documents and present them for filing with the court, it is assumed by the court that you have carefully read the documents, that you understand all the terms in the documents, that you agree with all the provisions in the documents, and that you are aware of all the consequences those provisions may produce.

Before filling in any portion of the following documents, read all the materials included in this packet including the definitions of terms.

THIS INFORMATION IS PROVIDED AS A COURTESY ONLY. THE COURT, SELF-HELP CENTER, NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION, OR LAW LIBRARY THAT MAY PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ERRORS CONTAINED HEREIN OR FOR DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE FURNISHING OF THIS MATERIAL.

COMPLAINT FOR ANNULMENT

PACKET D-11

This packet can be used only when all of the following exist:

- 1. The marriage took place in Nevada.
- 2. There are no minor children of the relationship or union.
- 3. There are no assets or debts to be divided.

This packet cannot be used if:

- 2. There are children of the relationship or union.
- 3. There are assets and/or debts that must be divided between the parties.
- 4. There is no legal reason for the annulment.

*Note: the length of the marriage and/or the fact that the parties did not actually cohabit are not, alone, grounds for an annulment.

If you have further questions as to whether or not you have grounds for an annulment under Nevada law, you should seek the advice of a private attorney or procedural guidance from the Family Court Self Help Center.

3. A Complaint for Annulment
4. 2 Summons Forms

*Note: this packet only contains the forms necessary to start the annulment process. You will need additional forms depending on whether the Defendant files and Answer to your Complaint. For more information, see the section entitled “After Service is Completed” at the end of these instructions.

The penalty for making a false statement in a declaration that is made under penalty of perjury is a minimum of 1 year and a maximum of 4 years in prison, with the possibility of an additional fine of $5000 or more if authorized or required by statute. See N.R.S. §199.145

FILLING OUT THE DOCUMENTS

The Civil Cover Sheet

Starting at the top, leave the Case No. blank. When you file the documents with the filing clerk, a case number and a department number will be assigned.

Fill in your name address and telephone number in the space for Plaintiff. Fill in the name, address and telephone number of the other party in the space for Defendant. If you do not know the address and telephone number of the Defendant, write “unknown” in the space provided.

Check the box labeled “Marriage Dissolution Case” and the box labeled “Annulment (AN)” on the left-side of the form.

You must sign and date the document at the bottom of the page.

The Family Court Information Sheet

Print your name on the line for Plaintiff and Defendant’s name on the line for Defendant. Leave the Case No. and Dept. No. blank. When you file the documents with the filing clerk, a case number and a department number will be assigned.

Fill in your name and the Defendant’s name, Social Security Numbers and dates of birth. If you or the Defendant do not have a Social Security number, print “do not have one” on the line for the number. Complete the form as directed.

Filling in the Complaint for Annulment

In the upper-left corner, print your Name, Address and Telephone Number.

Print your name as Plaintiff. Print the other party’s name as Defendant. Leave the Case No. and Dept. No. blank. When you file the documents with the filing clerk, a case number and a department number will be assigned.

Fill in the rest of the information as indicated in the spaces.

Because the marriage may be declared null and void, if Wife assumed Husband’s last name, she must return to her former name.

Sign and print your name at the end of the document.

The Two Summons Forms

On both copies of the Summons:

Print your name as the Plaintiff and the other party's name as the Defendant. Leave the Case No. and Dept. No. blank. When you file the documents with the filing clerk, a case number and a department number will be assigned.

Fill in Annulment as the "object of this action" on the line provided in the middle of the form.

Print your name, address and telephone number in the space on the bottom left side of the Summons.

Copying And Filing The Documents

Make two (2) copies of all documents except for the Summons. Take the original and the two (2) copies of all of the documents to the Filing Clerk's office, which is located on the first floor of the courthouse at 75 Court Street, Reno, NV.

A copy machine is available at the Law Library located on the first floor of the courthouse at 75 Court Street, Reno, NV (to the left of the Filing Clerk's Office). There is a per page charge to use the copy machine.

There may be a filing fee payable when you file the documents. Contact the Filing Clerk's office at (775) 328-3110 to confirm the amount of the fee.

FILING FEE WAIVERS

If you cannot afford the filing fee, you may apply to have your filing fee waived. To apply, you must fill out and file the application found in the F6 or F6JP fee waiver packet.

The F6 and F6JP fee waiver packets may be obtained in the following locations:

- Family Court Self Help Center, 1 South Sierra Street, Reno, NV
- Filing Clerk's Office, 75 Court Street, Reno, NV
- www.washoecourts.com

The filing clerk will keep the originals and return the file-stamped copies of the documents to you. The filing clerk will "issue" the Summons and place a raised stamp on one of the copies of the Summons, making this copy the original Summons. The second copy of the Summons will not have a raised stamp and will be considered a copy of the original Summons.

Serving The Documents

Once the documents have been filed by the Filing Clerk's Office, the document must be served by personal service or by publication. The documents cannot be served by mail.

Personal Service

Staple the copy of the Summons to a copy of the Complaint.

Someone other than you must make service on the other party. Service may be made:

1. By the Civil Division of the Sheriff's Office in the county in which the Defendant resides or works.
2. By a responsible adult over the age of 18 years, such as a friend or relative.
3. By a private process service.

After service is completed on the other party, the person who performed the service must fill out the Declaration of Service which is attached to the original Summons. The original Summons and Declaration of Service must then be filed with the Filing Clerk.

If service is accomplished by the Sheriff's Office or a private process service, they will either fill out the Declaration of Service attached to the original Summons and file it with the filing clerk or they may return the completed original Summons to you and you must file it with the filing clerk.

If you choose to have a friend or another adult over the age of 18 serve the documents, that person must fill out the Declaration of Service and it is your responsibility to file the original Summons with the Filing Clerk.

Without proof of service on the Defendant, the Court cannot grant a Decree of Annulment.

The Defendant has twenty (20) days after the date of service in which to file a formal, written Answer to the Complaint.

If You Do Not Know Where To Find Defendant

If you do not know where the Defendant is, you may serve by "publication" in the newspaper but you must get an Order from the Court allowing such service. The supplemental packet E-4 Ex Parte Motion For Publication of Summons is the packet used for this purpose.

IMPORTANT : Service on the other party, either in person or by publication, MUST BE MADE within ONE HUNDRED TWENTY DAYS (120) days after the Complaint is filed or the action may be dismissed.

After Service Is Completed

How your case will be handled after service of the Complaint and Summons is completed on the Defendant will depend entirely on whether an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim is filed by the Defendant.

NOTE: If the Summons and Complaint are personally served on the Defendant, the 20-day period starts to run on the day after personal service is made and includes weekends and holidays.

If the Summons is served by publication, the 20-day period starts to run on the day after the last date of publication and includes weekends and holidays. For more information on service by publication, see packet E-4 Ex Parte Motion for Publication of Summons.

If the Defendant Does Not File a Formal “Answer” Within 20-days After Being Served

If the Defendant does not file a formal “Answer” of any kind within 20-days after being served, you must fill out packet P-1 Default Packet and submit the documents to the Court for a final review and a decision by the Judge.

Check with the Filing Clerk’s Office before filing any default documents to see if the Defendant filed some kind of an “Answer” but did not yet serve you with a copy. The Court cannot grant a default annulment if the Defendant filed an “Answer.”

If the Defendant Files a formal “Answer” Within the 20-day Period

If the Defendant files a formal “Answer” within the 20-day answering period, the Defendant or the Defendant’s attorney should serve you with a copy of the Answer either by mail or by personal service.

When the Defendant files an “Answer” to the Complaint the case is put on a “trial track.” This means that since the annulment is a contested action, the issues may be heard and decided at a full trial in front of the judge.

If the Defendant files an “Answer” it is your responsibility to set the case for a hearing in front of the judge. To set the case for hearing, you will need packet F-1 Notice to Set which notifies the Defendant and/or the Defendant’s attorney that you will be setting the matter for a hearing with the Court. The Defendant’s attorney may also be tracking the case and may file a Notice to Set and serve the Notice to you.

If the Defendant files an Answer and Counterclaim and the case is contested, formal discovery may be appropriate. If so, it is your responsibility to follow the rules that apply to an annulment case regarding discovery and the time limits and procedures of discovery. For discovery information, refer to the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of the Second Judicial District Court as well as any pre-trial orders the court may issue in your case.

If the Defendant Files an “Answer and Counterclaim” Within the 20-day Period

If the Defendant files an “Answer and Counterclaim,” you must file a response by using packet A-1 Response to Counterclaim. The Response to Counterclaim must be filed within 20-days of service if the Answer and Counterclaim was personally served to you and within 23-days if the Answer and Counterclaim was mailed to you. If you do not reply to the Counterclaim, the Defendant may be granted what is asked for in the Counterclaim.

When the Defendant files an “Answer” to the Complaint the case is put on a “trial track.” This means that since the annulment is a contested action, the issues may be heard and decided at a full trial in front of the judge.

If the Defendant files an “Answer and Counterclaim” it is also your responsibility to set the case for a hearing in front of the judge. To set the case for hearing, you will need packet F-1 Notice to Set which notifies the Defendant and/or the Defendant’s attorney that you will be setting the matter for a hearing with the Court. The Defendant’s attorney may also be tracking the case and may file a Notice to Set and serve the Notice to you.

If the Defendant files an Answer and Counterclaim and the case is contested, formal discovery may be appropriate. If so, it is your responsibility to follow the rules that apply to an annulment case regarding discovery and the time limits and procedures of discovery. For discovery information, refer to the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure and the Rules of the Second Judicial District Court as well as any pre-trial orders the court may issue in your case.

1. Annulment of marriages contracted, performed or entered into without the State of Nevada may, for any cause provided by law for annulment of marriage, be obtained by complaint, under oath, to the district court of any county if the plaintiff shall have resided 6 weeks in the state before suit be brought; otherwise, by complaint, under oath, to the district court of the county in which:
