

Emily B. Reed serves as the Self Help Center and Law Library Program Manager, a position she has held since 2013. In her role, she is responsible for managing Law Library and Self Help Center staff, selecting library materials, and collaborating with judges, court administration, staff, volunteers, and legal service providers to increase patron services. She also creates and improves court forms and packets for self-represented litigants.

Ms. Reed specializes in making court practice and procedure more user friendly and providing access to the law for members of the public.

Ms. Reed received her Juris Doctor from the William S. Boyd School of Law, University of Nevada, Las Vegas, cum laude, and has a B.S. in Biology from the University of Nevada, Reno. She is a member of various organizations including the American Association of Law Libraries, the American Inns of Court, the Nevada Association of Court Executives, the National Association for Court Management, the Northern Nevada Women Lawyers Association, and the Washoe County Bar Association.

Since becoming manager of the Law Library and Self Help Center, the Law Library has been awarded the Collaboration Award and Community Partner Award from Nevada Legal Services. Ms. Reed has also received the Patriotic Employer Award from the Office of the Secretary of Defense Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve, the Early Career Professional Award from the National Association for Court Management, and the 2018 Champion of Justice Award from Nevada Legal Services.
