

Heather Potts serves as the Chief Fiscal Officer, a position she has held since June 2015. In her role, she oversees all accounting functions, including the Court's $25 million annual budget, accounts payable, and reconciliation of the daily fines and fees collected at the Court. She is a member of the Executive Leadership Team, which provides guidance and recommendations to members of management, and supports District Court Judges and employees.

Prior to coming to District Court, Heather was an Accounting Manager at a hedge fund specializing in distressed debt and as an alternative investment accountant of a family trust.

She received her Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from Indiana State University and her Master of Business Administration, Accounting from Keller Graduate School. She is currently a member of the Institute of Management Accountants.

She was born and raised in Indiana and has lived out west for 20 years, settling in Reno in 2004. In her free time she enjoys spending time with her family and her dogs and camping.
