

Sarah Thompson serves as the Specialty Courts Program Manager, a position she has held since 2020. The Second Judicial District Court has eight Specialty Court Programs. Ms. Thompson is directly responsible for the management and operations of each of those Specialty Courts. In her role, she acts as the court liaison between Specialty Courts and other judicial, legal, government, and treatment communities. Ms. Thompson leads the Specialty Courts team to success by promoting open communication, teamwork, and professional development.

Prior to this role at the Second Judicial District Court, Ms. Thompson worked in the State of Nevada's criminal justice system for eleven years. She served in various rolls within this field, including Specialty Courts Coordinator, Deputy Clerk, Parole and Probation Specialist III, and as a Correctional Officer.

Ms. Thompson received her Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice Administration from the University of Phoenix in 2010. She is a member of the National Association of Drug Court Professionals and the National Association of Court Management.

Ms. Thompson is passionate about volunteering and has worked to bring suicide awareness and prevention to the community. She has been a committee member for a local Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary since 2018 and enjoys regularly volunteering at the VA hospital.
