

William M. Wright, Jr. serves as the Assistant District Court Administrator, a position that he has held since 2022. Mr. Wright is part of the Executive Leadership Team which is responsible for the overall management of court operations and personnel. In this capacity, Mr. Wright influences and facilitates the strategic planning efforts for various court programs and initiatives.

Prior to his current role, Mr. Wright served in the United States Air Force's Judge Advocate General (JAG) Corps as both an active-duty officer and a civilian attorney-advisor. In his role as a civilian attorney-advisor he served as a senior attorney and provided legal advice and counsel for complex, often precedential, cases in administrative law, claims, environmental law, ethics, contract law, labor law, international law, and operations law to support the 9th Reconnaissance Wing located at Beale AFB, CA. During his service as an active-duty officer, he focused on litigation and served as both a military prosecutor and defense counsel and prosecuted and defended serious felony level federal criminal charges.

Mr. Wright received his Juris Doctor from the University of California, Hastings college of the law. He also holds a bachelor's degree in Honors Economics with a Minor in Management from the University of California, Irvine.
