Responses to Public Comments. The Internal Review Board can deliberate or take action only if a matter has been listed on an agenda properly posted prior to the meeting. During the public comment period, speakers may address matters listed or not listed on the published agenda. The Open Meeting Law does not expressly prohibit responses to public comments by the Internal Review Board. However, responses from the Internal Review Board to unlisted public comment topics could become deliberation on a matter without notice to the public. On the advice of legal counsel and to ensure the public has notice of all matters the Internal Review Board will consider, the Internal Review Board may choose not to respond to public comments, except to correct factual inaccuracies, ask for County staff action or to ask that a matter be listed on a future agenda. The Internal Review Board may do this either during the public comment item or during the following item: "Topics for Future Agendas".
