

Judge Archie Blake

Judge Blake was born and raised in the Pacific Northwest. He received his undergraduate degree in mathematics from Southern Oregon College, an MS in economics from the University of Nevada, a J.D. from the University of Notre Dame, and a Ph.D. from the University of Nevada. He spent 5 years in the Navy and is a Vietnam veteran.

Judge Blake was a criminal prosecutor for nine years in Lyon County, NV. He also served as a tribal prosecutor, Yerington city attorney, and attorney for the Nevada Public Service Commission.

Judge Blake began his judicial career in 1988 and was elected four times to the Third Judicial Court. In 2001, he started the multi-county/multi-jurisdictional Western Regional Drug Court. He currently is employed as a senior judge and conducts court for the Washoe County Specialty Courts (Reno) and the Western Regional Drug Court. Judge Blake is currently married to retired teacher Georgi S. Blake. His daughter, Jessica, is a PGA golf professional.